La Luna Ladies Fashion Boutique

Situated on the bustling main street of Plettenberg Bay is this long and well established high end ladies fashion boutique. With a well established and regular client base, this successful business is seeking a new owner due to the current owners wishing to retire.

Current and trending fashions are sought from European suppliers with whom the owners have forged relationships over years and it is this unique relationship that offers them the ongoing success they have been able to thrive on through the years.

A stock holding of between R400 and R600k is on hand for the new owner to take over at wholesale price. *Note the stock is not included in the marketed price of the business.

The lease is transferrable and renewable to the successful applicant and will form a part of the agreement of sale. The seller will
